

Checklist: Is your child gifted?

Determining if the Quest program is a needed accommodation for your child requires looking at multiple pieces of data. These lists will only show some indicators of giftedness.

Most, but not all, of the following questions apply equally well to children of various ages. No one child will exhibit all of these. They are intended to serve as a checklist of the abilities revealed by many gifted children.

1. Did your child walk and talk earlier than most other children of his age and gender?
2. Did she show a comparatively early interest in words?
3. Does he have an exceptionally large vocabulary for his age?
4. Did she show an early interest in clocks, calendars, jigsaw puzzles?
5. Did he show an early interest in numbers?
6. Did she show an early interest in reading?
7. Does he express curiosity about many things?

Response to an assignment

Consider this...

Is my child happy, developing and making academic growth and progress in school?

-If so, then the Quest program might not be a needed accommodation for your child.

Does my child need a different pace and depth of instruction to promote and deepen academic growth?

-If so, the Quest might fit the academic needs of your child.
